

MISSION

To be the water firm of choice for both our clients and team.

VISION

To be the leader in water in the West.

PURPOSE

To advance water resources for future generations.

/// West Yost Associates has demonstrated that they have the people who understand water—especially how statewide water policies affect individual municipal agencies. Furthermore, West Yost has excellent technical resources and they have provided quality analysis.”

—Mr. Jim Peifer, PE,
Executive Director, Regional
Water Authority and Sacramento
Groundwater Authority

Who We Are

West Yost is a consulting engineering firm that was founded in 1990. Our focus is exclusively water, recycled water, wastewater, groundwater, and stormwater. We provide planning, design, construction management, and program management services in these areas.

West Yost is headquartered in Davis, California, and has more than 200 staff members in nine offices in California, Oregon, and Arizona. Our staff includes certified or registered professionals in civil, environmental, mechanical, control systems, and electrical engineering; water and wastewater treatment process design and regulatory compliance; asset management and condition assessment; geology, engineering geology, and hydrogeology; cybersecurity, and risk management; program and procurement management; and construction management and inspection services.

Funding and Grant Services

West Yost assists clients in identifying, applying for, capturing, and implementing project funds through loan and grant programs. Our expertise includes state and federal programs and working with multi-agency groups to identify funding mechanisms, define institutional relationships, and coordinate documentation and schedule requirements. Our team provides the following services:

Research and Strategy

- Identifying federal, state, local, and private funding opportunities.
- Prioritizing opportunities based on timing/schedules and ranking/rating criteria.
- Developing integration strategies to enhance and better tailor projects for specific funding programs.
- Preparing Strategic Funding Plans that prioritize funding opportunities for a specific program or project.

Application Preparation and Submittal

- Communicating and coordinating with funding agencies.
- Identifying and coordinating required information and developing the project narrative tailored to the grant program for each application, including the writing and organizing of information.
- Completing and submitting full proposals and application packages on behalf of clients.

Management and Reporting

- Fully managing funding disbursement requests.
- Fully managing the process of submitting post-award reports to funding agencies and performing labor compliance to meet ongoing funding requirements.

West Yost has assisted clients in securing more than a billion dollars in loans and grants for water-related projects. Our success is based on maintaining excellent working relationships with funding agency staff, solid technical and writing skills, and attention to detail.
